

WORKCOVER FORKLIFT IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

An applicant is to provide evidence of identity documents of identity that add up to a minimum of 100 points. These documents should be the same documents that will be provided to a NSW Australia Post Bank@Post outlet as evidence of identity when the application is lodged.

Within the documents, the applicant must be able to show their photo, date of birth, signature and current address. The documents must be original documents. Certified copies will not be accepted.

The assessor must verify the applicant's identity, date of birth, signature, and current address prior to commencing the assessment. Assessors must refuse to conduct an assessment where the applicant has failed to provide adequate evidence of identity. The assessor must record the evidence of identity document details in their entirety on the CA1 Form and then hand the documents straight back to the applicant.
